“WASH YOUR HANDS, PHYSICALLY DISTANCE, STAY SAFE”

With all the heart of Jamie Oliver, and none of the bite of Gordon Ramsey our very own legend Remi “le grand Chef” and his studio manager Chrissy (not pictured) provided a video-link from the CSS “Studio Kitchen” to our participating residences for a cooking class.

Individuals made the recipe along with Remi and we understand it was a hit!

Chrystal and ALL her CSS team assigned to individual homes continue to amaze with the ways they provide activities and outreach for individuals.

Although CSS is closed during the pandemic, Chrissy and Remi are working hard to bring CSS fun into the group homes via Zoom! Wednesday's successful Scavenger Hunt was followed up by a Cooking with Remi class. Everyone can look forward to ongoing themed bingo games, gardening lessons, more cooking classes with Remi, and many more fun and creative activities to add some extra entertainment into the lives of those we support during these difficult days and to connect everyone with the friends they miss seeing.

Thank you Chrissy and Remi! You are doing a fantastic job!

These innovative activities would not have been possible without the helping and organizing hands of all Residential staff supporting in the kitchens and without the help of the CTRC Professional Resources Team Shoppers that ensure supplies are in the homes.

Joel, Lisa and Pamela are leading The Professional Resources Team with continued connections to community individuals, responding to crisis situations, providing resources and support.

The CTRC effort is truly a team effort!

NOTE

You are all and we are all the team that has kept covid-19 out of our homes for now near 8 weeks.

As Ontario is opening up more businesses to public access we must not stop now:

- ✓ It will be important, more than ever, to keep well.
- ✓ Please practice social distancing from others.
- ✓ Please wear a mask when out in areas where others may not fully respect social distancing
- ✓ Keep you and others safe.

Respectfully,

Daniel Roy
